MAY ORDER OUT-STATE MILITIAMEN

Philadelphia Mayor Will Assist in Operation of Cars

MORE SHOOTING OCCURS

Dynamite Used and Two More are Added to Death List as Result of Strike.

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—Four troops of the state police under command of Capt. John C. Bloom, came from their stations in Pennsylvania and were assigned for strike duty this morning. The men were mounted and armed with revolvers and riot sticks. The troops will be assigned to the streets in the districts where disturbances have been frequent during the past few days.

The arrival of the troops marks a determined effort on the part of the city authorities to provide protection sufficient to allow the Rapid Transit company to operate its full quota of cars.

Should the combined strength of the mounted state troops and the 5,000 policemen prove insufficient to cope with the situation, Mayor Royburn is authority for the statement that the state National Guard will be brought here and the operation of the normal number of cars insured. Such drastic measures are admitted by the leaders of the Car Men's Union to be staggering blows and are believed that before the day is over the directors of the strike will make an announcement of an equally vigorous action. What this move will be cannot be stated positively but from intimation given by the leaders this morning it is believed to be the sanction of the order of John J. Murphy, president of the Central Labor Union, calling for a general strike of all the organized trade organizations affiliated with that body.

Several thousand men and boys in West Philadelphia going to work at seven o'clock this morning attacked cars and made quite a demonstration before being dispersed by the police. No one was seriously injured.

Ready for a fight or a frolic, Captain Jack Groome and 200 of his black horse cavalry, the hated and feared state constabulary of Pennsylvania, reached Philadelphia today and are now doing picket duty in the districts where the fiercest disorders have occurred since the inception of the strike.

The 200 mounted troopers are assisted by more than 1500 uniformed policemen, and cars are being run on fair schedules. As yet the constables have had no clashes with the rioters, who seem as yet with the reputation of these fearless horsemen, who seem to like nothing better than a wild gallop over resisting crowds.

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—The police officials of this city virtually acknowledged their inability to cope with the present strike situation when a request was made of John C. Groome, superintendent of the state police, that the 200 members of his command be brought to this city for police duty.

This request was made notwithstanding that serious rioting was less frequent yesterday than on any day since the strike of the street car men went into effect last Saturday.

For the first time during the present struggle, the Rapid Transit company succeeded in running its cars until a week last evening on the Frankfort line, which penetrates this unruly territory. At that hour cars on all lines were returned to the respective barns.

Four policemen guarded each car on this line and the pick of the city's detective force patrolled the route all day in automobiles. These men succeeded in restoring a semblance of order where the state constables had failed the day before. Whenever a group of men formed anywhere on the street, the detectives rushed them and followed the ringleaders even into houses until they captured them. In spite of the vigilance of the police, many car windows were broken and missiles thrown from windows and the company was finally obliged to send its cars along this route with sheet-iron windows in place of the usual glass panes.

While the police were busy keeping tracks clear for the lines in Kensington, the lines in other parts of the city were run on much reduced schedules and on several of the West Philadelphia and own-town lines no attempt was made to run cars all day, although these sections were comparatively quiet. The shopping district on Market street, in the heart of the city, was again the scene of almost continuous disturbances, especially at the noon hour. No one was seriously injured, however.

Baldwin's Locomotive Works was the scene of a serious disturbance during the lunch hour of the hundreds of employees. One employee was shot in the foot and about 50 shots were fired at laborers, who sought refuge on the upper floors of the buildings and hurled bolts and nuts at the policemen, who were guarding cars in the district. Every time a head appeared at a window it was the target for a bullet from a policeman's revolver. The 1 o'clock whistle, signaling the expiration of the lunch hour, brought hostilities to an end.

The city high schools, which are attended by pupils from all sections of the city, are located near these industrial plants which have been bombarding the cars with bolts and nuts.

In order not to endanger the lives of the pupils who would be forced to ride on the cars, the board of education decided not to open the two schools for girls during the remainder of the week.

Telegrams were sent to President Taft and Senator Penrose by the officials of the street car men's union yesterday saying:

"Union men on strike here offer services for operation of mail and newspaper cars as was done throughout last strike. Company refuses to allow union men to continue to operate mail cars and has today forced them off their mail cars by summary discharges. Interference with mail operations therefore comes from the company and not from the strikers."

The heavy hand of the law pressed hard on some of the men and boys who have been arrested for rioting. Elwood Carr, alleged to have been a ringleader in a riot in the Kensington district, was sentenced to six years in the county prison. There were six counts against him and he got a year on each. John Klitz, who could scarcely understand the English language, was given two years, and Ellis Atkins was given a similar sentence. A 17-year-old boy was sent to the Huntington reformatory for 13 months for throwing missiles at a car, and two other boys and men were sentenced to two and three months each.

While the evidence against most of the defendants was of the strongest character, there was an apparent vein of sympathy among the jurors. The fact that the sympathetic strike was not declared by President John J. Murphy of the Central Labor Union acted as a panacea to the three police officials of the city, who were anticipating a strike of 100,000 men. A move is on foot, however, to have the sympathizers of the striking street railway employees parade peacefully to the city hall 100,000 strong and thereby show the mayor and other officials the proportions of the threatened uprising should it later be decided to call these men out.

The decision not to have this army of workers engage in the struggle at present was due to Organizer Clarence O. Pratt of the Street Car Men's Union. He pointed out to Murphy that the time was not opportune for the move. The union leader decided to take the advice of Pratt and defer calling for such drastic action by sympathizers.

The right of Murphy to call a general strike of all trades organizations affiliated with the Central Union is disputed by a majority of the local labor leaders. Careful investigation shows that Murphy, as head of the central body, has no authority to order a general strike, but is only given the power to suggest one. It then rests with each trade union to act upon the proposals. Unions can declare sympathetic strikes without any request from the central labor organization.

There are some unions that would not agree to a general sympathetic strike. It is said, because it would involve the breaking of hard-won trade agreements with employers, who are innocent parties in the present trouble.

Pratt, the strike leader, declared the men had practically won the strike and that the fact that the transit company had advertised for 3000 men showed it could not obtain decent workmen.

The company has issued a statement in which it is claimed that the strikers "cannot and will not win." In part the statement follows:

"There is no possibility of this company dealing on any basis with the men who have engineered the events of the past three days. The men who have stood by us may be sure that we will stand by them. There will be no settlement of which includes taking back the men who have led and encouraged such violence."

In defiance of his position upon the suggestion to settle the strike by mediation, an official of the company said that under no consideration would the company entertain such a plan.

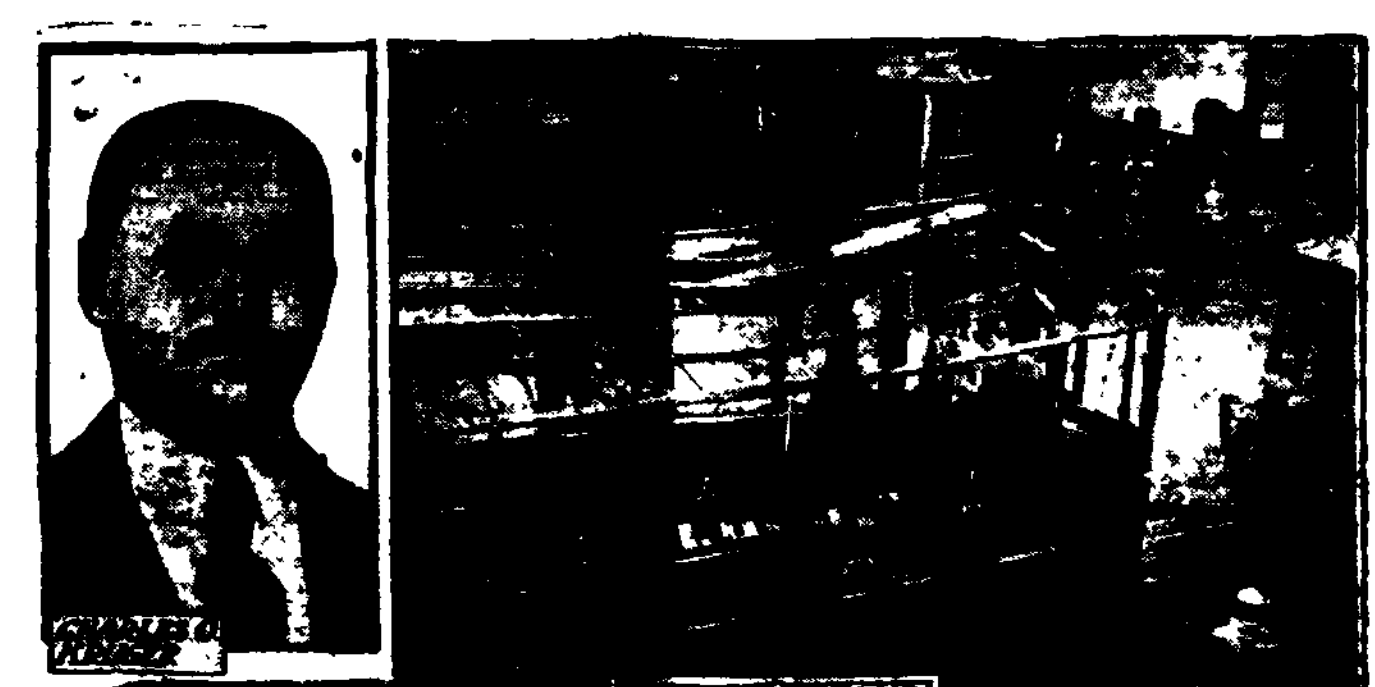

"We have heard that Senator Penrose will be asked to lend his good offices to end the strike. That fact would never lead us to consider any interference or mediation from outside parties in a dispute which is not at all an issue in which the public can be concerned. In the language of George H. Earle, a director of the company, 'anybody cannot be arbitrated.'"

PHILADELPHIA CAR COMPANY'S HEAD AND SCENES IN STRIKE

"HELLO GIRLS" WERE OVERCOME

Garey, Ind., Feb. 24.—Two telephone girls in the local exchange were overcome by smoke during a fire today which destroyed the Ohio building and for a time threatened to spread to other structures. The girls remained at their switchboard in the exchange adjoining the Ohio building until they felt unconscious. Loss $75,000.

AGED MAN KILLED IN COLUMBUS TODAY BY N. & W. TRAIN

Columbus, O., Feb. 24.—John Sharkey, aged 90, and in his second childhood, who for the past twenty years has been an inmate of the county infirmary, was killed this morning by a Norfolk & Western train while on his way into Columbus. It is thought that Sharkey did not hear the train and was unable to get off the track after he saw it approaching.

He was told not to leave the infirmary this morning by officials, but did not heed the warnings.

Sharkey has been spending most of his winters at the infirmary. The train was stopped after the man was hit and the body was brought to Columbus.

MEAT STILL ON THE BOUND

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Retail meat prices are soaring again, advances from one-half cent to two cents a pound in all classes of meat from sausage to turkeys were announced by butchers today. The dealers issued statements blaming the cold weather for the increase but declaring that further advances would come and remain in effect probably until spring.

An English scientist has invented an instrument with which he can look into your stomach and watch the food digest.

URGES REPUBLICANS TO STAND BY PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Washington, Feb. 24.—Urging all Republicans to stand by the protective tariff principles in the coming election, even if they are down to defeat, and not to heed the popular cry of high prices, Representative Gardner (Rep. Mass.) one of the conservative insurgents undertook today to prove to the house that the tariff has nothing to do with the prevailing high cost of living.

Roman's friend, Vasyi Hurko would meet her. Vasyi went to the depot but Olga, who had only been in America six months failed to alight from the train.

Chief Zergelbel has had policemen visit the Russians in Newark, and other foreigners have been questioned but so far no trace of Olga has been discovered. She has probably gotten lost in the strange country and her fate may be similar to that of hundreds of other young girls, who flee from their homes in the old country in an attempt to find a better life on the lookout for them.

WILL ORGANIZE CRACK MILITARY COMPANY HERE

About 20 young men met in the Armory, Wednesday night, to talk over the reorganization of No. 4 Fourth Ohio volunteer infantry, and so well did their plans materialize that it was decided to call another meeting Monday night, for the completion of the arrangements.

The membership in the old company stationed here has been dwindling for some time past, and when the last riot call to Bridgeport was sent out but a bare handful of Newark men reported for duty, and Newark sent the smallest number of men sent from any city in this vicinity.

It is said upon authority that the state will appropriate $15,000 for an armory in Newark if the company is properly organized by responsible men, and something done to guarantee the membership. In other cities the best young men of the city are members of the company and the desire of the local men is to reorganize the company in such a manner that it will be above reproach in every way.

Major Henderson of Columbus and Major Irwin will be in Newark Monday night to attend the meeting which will be held in the major's office at 7:30, and all young men of proper age who wish to join are urged to be present.

NO INSURANCE FOR EVERETT COMPANY

Columbus, Feb. 24.—According to the decision of the Supreme court the Edward H. Everett company gets no insurance on its factory located at Newark, which is said to have been damaged to the extent of $17,000 by lightning. It brought suit against the German-American Insurance Co. The insurance company said the proofs filed were defective and denied that the damage was by lightning, saying it was by cyclone, which was not covered by the insurance policy.

One of the defects in the Everett company's claim, to which the insurance company drew particular attention in a letter to the Everett company naming it first—is that the claim is sworn to by "Edward H. Everett," instead of by "Edward H. Everett, president of and for the Edward H. Everett Co."

BLOWERS START WORKING TODAY

The tanks at the American Bottle company's plant in this city resumed operation Thursday, after remaining idle for some time. One hundred and eight blowers were put to work on the tanks and 325 extra men were also placed on the pay rolls. The other tanks will start within a short time and it will not be long until the plant is again running at full capacity.

PROVISIONALS VICTORIOUS

Bluefields, Nicaragua, Feb. 24.—By wireless to Colon.—It is believed here today that the victory of the provisional army over the remnants of the government forces is complete. All that remains now is the formal occupation of Managua. According to telegrams from Estrada this will be accomplished tomorrow. Part of the army will move against the city by boats on Lake Managua, while the forces of General Mena will enter from the land side.

BROWN SIGNS WITH CUBS

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Mordcahai Brown today is the most talked-of man in baseball. When the Chicago Cubs' word was spread up to pitch for the Cubs in 1910 and 1911 he dispensed for good and all, the fears among fans that he might become a hold-out. After a long talk with President Murphy and Manager Chance, Brown decided he would "pitch his head off this season to keep down the Pirates in the pennant chase."

A substantial increase in his salary under the new contract makes Brown the highest paid pitcher in the business.

ALSDORF TAX LIMIT MEASURE

Declared to be Greatest Step Forward in Tax Reform of Years

BACKED BY GOV. HARMON

Corporations Would Delay the Hearing on the Employee Liability Bill.

Columbus, Feb. 24.—The first hearing on the Alsdorf measure to limit the rate of the taxing districts of Ohio to one and one-half percent during 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914, developed the fact that the small cities of the state favor the limitation of the tax rate to one percent, or five mills less than the fifth now provides.

The bill has the backing of Governor Harmon and every man who appeared before the committee favored its general provision for limiting the rate of taxation, many declaring it to be the greatest step forward in tax reform the state has seen in many years.

The corporation fight on the employees' liability bill was outlined before a joint legislative committee last night. Large numbers of employers were in the city, but only a few attended the meeting. Their case was presented by Attorney Francis B. James, of Cincinnati, representing the Ohio State Board of Commerce, and by ex-Representative John Smith representing Cleveland employers.

The campaign of the corporations is for delay. They want a postponement to investigate and report to the next legislature on a more favorable bill. They say that what is really needed is another kind of law than the one offered; a law that will prevent accidents and killings, and a workmen's indemnity law.

Labor was represented by Harry Thomas, of Cleveland, Thomas Ramsey, of Toledo, and others, but the battle for the bill was by D. F. Anderson, of Youngstown, its author, who pointed out the ineffectiveness of present laws and showed that the proposed law offered little or nothing new. He said it merely sought to vitalize and make effective some of the laws which the legislature had passed to protect life and limb and which the courts had nullified.

After a conference with Chairman Beatty and other members of the probe committee this morning State Accountant Frank Brown was instructed to go before the grand jury and tell what he knows about the transactions of W. D. Dinsmore with former Public Printer Mark Storer. Chairman Beatty directed this morning that there were large discrepancies in the Dinsmore accounts compared with the amount of funds received in Columbus. It is estimated that the amount will exceed $20,000.

The Anderson bill, legalizing Sunday baseball, is expected to be reported favorably by the committee on cities, before which there was a large public hearing this morning. The bill provides that a special election shall be held on the question of Sunday baseball in any community where 25 per cent of the voters petition for such an election.

Arguments for the passage of the Perry centennial bill were heard in the house, Lieutenant Governor F. W. Treadway presiding. The chief guest was Senator A. E. Simon, of Erie, Pa., auditor-general elect of that state, the gentleman who secured the appropriations in 1909 for the celebration. It was in his city that Perry built his victorious fleet in 1815. Prof. Isaac J. Cox, of Cincinnati, of the Ohio Valley Historical Association, read a paper relating to the battle and its mighty results.

Chesley R. Perry, of Illinois, a member of the Admiral's family, also spoke. Webster F. Huntington, of this city, for the committee, told of the proposed memorial, which is to cost $400,000, and in which seven states and the general government are to share. There are more ships on the port of New York, and those are scarcely any protection. The houses and the wireless station will pay for the expense in a few years, and the saving of human life will be of incalculable value. Last season there were 30 lives lost, which might have been saved through telegraph apparatus.

It would not be at all surprising if some member from the temperance side of the senate would move at any time that the committee of municipal affairs be relieved of the Dean bill to amend the Rose county local option law. This is probably about by charges made that provisions have been broken.

Recipes for Friday, Feb. 25, 1910.

Macaroni and Cheese—Break the macaroni into short lengths and put into plenty of boiling salted water. Cook, never allowing the water to stop boiling until the macaroni is tender—not a moment longer. Drain in a colander, pouring cold water over it; shake as dry as possible. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter to every half pound of macaroni (one quarter of a pound is sufficient for an ordinary dish), and grate four ounces of cheese. Grease a baking dish, cover the bottom with macaroni, pour over a little butter and sprinkle with grated cheese; continue with alternate layers of the ingredients until all is used, having the last butter and cheese. Brown in a quick oven and serve at once.

Celery Mayonnaise—Use only the white stalks of the celery and cut into pieces one quarter of an inch long. To every cupful of celery allow one-half of a cupful of mayonnaise dressing. Season the celery with salt and pepper and mix it with the dressing. Never mix dressing with salad until ready to use. Serve in a low salad dish, garnished with the delicate celery leaves.

To Stop a Cough in a Hurry.

With this recipe you can make a pint of cough remedy at home in five minutes. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Put 2½ oz. of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a clean pint bottle, and fill up with Granulated Sugar Syrup, made as follows: Take a pint of Granulated Sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. The taste is very pleasant—children take it willingly. Splendid, too, for colds, chest pains, whooping cough, bronchitis, etc.

Granulated Sugar makes the best syrup. Pinex, as you probably know, is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract. None of the weaker pine preparations will take its place. If your druggist hasn't the real Pinex, he can easily get it for you.

Strained honey can be used instead of the syrup, and makes a very fine honey and pine tar cough syrup.

The Mission

Of these corpuscles in your blood that have been called "Little Bacteria," is to fight for you against the disease germs that constantly endanger your health. These corpuscles are made healthy and strong by the use of Wood's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is a combination of more than 20 different remedial agents in proportions and by a process known only to ourselves and it has for thirty years been constantly proving its worth. Be confident, now "just-as-good."

and Alsford voted the other day to send the bill to the committee on municipal affairs instead of to the committee on temperance, it was with the understanding that it would be reported out for passage the next week.

The committee on municipal affairs at a meeting last evening decided to report on the bill on next Tuesday and make it a special order for the following Thursday.

With but one dissenting vote the labor committee of the house today decided to recommend the passage of the employers' liability bill, and endorsed by the Ohio Federation of

No remedy could have given greater satisfaction. It only required the contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills to drive away my trouble and during the time that has since passed, I have not felt the slightest symptom of a recurrence. Elkins on the Warpath.
The bad blood over the high price inquiry in the senate may prove effective in the future. Senator Elkins is hardly a man to be trifled with, and he is not without power. Moreover, he frankly speaks his mind. When Lodge was placed at the head of the high prices investigating committee, although Elkins was the author of the resolution which gave the committee existence, the West Virginia senator was indignant and openly said so. He asserted that he had been "buffaloed" and charged that the move was a "ruse to protect the tariff."

AGED WOMAN'S NARROW ESCAPE

Mrs. Hannah Rathbun's Apron Caught Fire From Hot Coal That Snapped From Grate.

An open fire almost caused the death of Mrs. Hannah Rathbun, rear of 95 Ninth street, Wednesday afternoon, when a hot coal snapped from the fire into her lap and ignited her apron.

Mrs. Rathbun, who is 90 years old, was sitting in front of the fire tearing carpet rags, when the blazing coal dropped into her lap and in an instant her apron was in a blaze. With a cry that brought her son David to her assistance, she beat at the flames while he brought the extinguisher and tore the blazing cloth from her.

Mrs. Rathbun was not greatly frightened after the accident was over, but she realized that a very narrow escape she had had, and but for her own presence of mind and the quick action of her son, the result might have been fatal.

Although she is at such an advanced age, Mrs. Rathbun is in full possession of her faculties and is a great favorite in the neighborhood, and as soon as the report had spread of her narrow escape from a frightful death, the home was crowded.

Her right hand was slightly burned, and while the injury is a painful one, it is not particularly serious. David Rathbun is a well known bricklayer of this city.

AMUSEMENTS

GREAT ACT AT ORPHEUM.

Manager Fenberg announces a novelty at the Orpheum this week in the persons of The Chamberlains, marvels with the lasso. Mr. Fenberg saw this act at Hammerstein's Roof Garden last summer, where they played during the entire season and he can truthfully state that it is one of the best acts of its kind before the public today. The lasso, that limp piece of rawhide in their hands, takes the character of a solid object and whirling through the air, describing various curves at will. Their act is short of miraculous and Messrs. Sam and Murray are lucky to be able to secure them for the circuit. Myrtle, the lady member of the team, is the only lady lasso artist in the world.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

One of the latest singing hits is the song Schmitzbank—El Di Schone—El Du Schone—El Du Schone—Schmitzbank. This will be introduced the last of the week starting with the performances today at the Orpheum by Schmitzbank and Schad. This act is said to be one of the best on the circuit and during their short stay in the city will sing all that is late in song hits. The bill at the Orpheum for the last half of the week is a good one and besides the above clever act includes The Chamberlains, Marvels of the Lasso. This act was one of the features of the 101 Ranch Wild West show last season and has been one of the hits on the Sun circuit. Joe Kennedy, a wonder on wheels, will be seen doing stunts on roller skates. The musical Tolans offer a very neat and interesting musical act, in which they play on numerous instruments all that is late in music. New pictures will be presented by the orpheumscope.

THE GUY STOCK COMPANY.

Not in many years has a theatrical attraction aroused so much interest all over the country as that which "Wanda" of the Guy Stock company is creating. "Wanda" is one of the features of the show, and will be seen with the Guy Stock company during their engagement at the Auditorium theatre, where they open an engagement starting Monday, Feb. 28, and continue all week with a change of bill nightly and a matinee every day. The Guy Stock company is presenting some of the best masterpieces of the drama, and the fact that the patronage is limited only by the capacity of the house, is abundant proof that the company is giving the patrons of the theatre what they want. "Wanda" the mind reader, appears at every performance and mystifies the entire audience. She answers questions that exist only in the minds of those who ask them and she tells events of the past and the future. Everybody is talking about her and her marvellous work that seems supernatural. Psychologists have all been baffled by "Wanda's" peculiar gift, and she goes on mystifying and amazing them all. Don't forget all next week at the Auditorium theatre. Seat sale starts Friday morning. No extra charge for securing your seats in advance. Monday the opening night, ladies free, unless the usual conditions.

CREW IS IN GRAVE PERIL

Dover, England, Feb. 24. — Five tugs and three life boats are making heroic efforts today to reach a large unidentified steamship that is breaking to pieces on Goodwin Sands, the Strait of Dover graveyard. The crew of the steamer is in grave peril, as the rough sea makes it improbable that the rescue boats will be able to reach the steamer.

This Changeable Weather Is Responsible for Cold and Pneumonia

The thing worth knowing about pneumonia is that it is a cold that has attacked the lining of the lungs. Another fact worth knowing is that pneumonia attacks only those whose systems lack fighting power to drive off the germ—a good many persons who look strong and robust lack this fighting power.

If at the first sign of the cold you take Father John's Medicine, you not only cure the cold but nourish and strengthen the whole system. Then the little healthy microbes which exist in your body gain vitality and force to overcome the invading disease germ, whether of pneumonia, grip or any other ailment.

aged than she is discharged again and always because she cannot keep the men away from her, Miss Gear is still further outdistancing all the other comedienne. She will be seen here next month at the Auditorium theatre.

It's The Best Polish I Ever Used

That's What Every One Says Who Tries

Black Silk Stove Polish

DON'T imagine for a moment that all brands of stove polish are the same. Don't get the idea that to keep a nice glossy shine on your stove you must black it every few days. It's not a question of oft-repeated application. It's a question of the stove polish to use.

Black Silk Stove Polish is so much better than other stove polishes that there is absolutely no comparison—it's in a class all by itself. It makes a brilliant glossy shine that don't rub or dust off. It adheres to the iron—becomes a part of the stove. It makes old stoves look like new and lasts four times as long as any other shine.

Get a can and give it a trial. Try it on your parlor stove, your cook stove, or your gas range. If you do not find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Black Silk Stove Polish has been made by the same formula and sold under one name for 25 years.

Here is what some of the ladies write us:

"I saw your advertisement but was unable to secure the polish here. I sent to you for it and found Black Silk Stove Polish so much better than any I had ever used that I asked my hardware dealer to order a supply. He did so, and is now selling nearly every one in the place your wonderful polish. I had no idea there could be such a difference in stove polishes."

"I tried the sample box of Black Silk Stove Polish and like it so well that I want black all the other stoves in the house. Enclosed find 50 cents. Send polish for that amount by return mail. Our hardware merchant does not keep it."

"I had the best shine I ever saw, and after blacking the polish did not rub or dust off. It is the best stove polish I have ever used."

"I received the Black Silk Stove Polish and found it all you claim and the best I ever used."

Ask Your Dealer

For Black Silk Stove Polish and refuse a counterfeit brand. (Watch you no more than the ordinary kind, so why not have the best. Made in liquid or paste—both quality.)

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

People in Newark have been hearing for some months of Rev. Charles Emerson Barton, the junior pastor of the great Columbia church, made famous by the Ministry of Washington Gladden, and have counted him as one of the men who could do and say things worth while. He is to speak at the meeting of men at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 3 p. m. There will be nothing denominational in his address, but men of all churches or men of none can get practical help from it. Admission will be free to any man.

Canal Winchester is to see a real basketball team. The Newark Y. M. C. A. has accepted the invitation to play a friendly game there on Friday evening and will do what they can to uphold the honor of Newark both as athletes and as gentlemen.

Tuesday evening, March 1, at 7:15 o'clock, the members of the general committee and of all sub-committees who worked on the laymen's convention of last week will be asked to meet at the Y. M. C. A. to decide on "Follow up" plans. Inquiries for help in this are sure to come from many individual churches, and it is very important that some one be ready to respond.

The Central Ohio committee is asking a report from the committee of Licking county on March 17 as to the progress of the missionary movement among the men of this section.

No Result to the Games in Toledo Checker Match.

Toledo, Feb. 24.—The checker match between Newell Banks, of Detroit, and Hugh Henderson, of Pittsburgh, for the championship of America and a purse of $1000, is growing interesting, especially as all of yesterday's games resulted in draws. All the games were easy except the last, in which Banks pressed Henderson hard in a long ending. The score to date stands Banks 1, Henderson 1, draws 9, which shows that the two principals are very equally matched. The first game ran along the regular lines, while the second developed an interesting parity position, in which Banks with the whites seemed to have the stronger position. Last night's games opened with 10-12-13 relays, the first game sticking close to the books, while the second, in which Banks handled the whites to perfection, developed into a white dyke, which the spectators thought Banks would win. Henderson, however, was equal to the emergency, and the game ended in a draw.

WANTED: 50 MEN AND WOMEN

In the Quintette Tournament on Music Hall alleys, there is now 41 entries; the chances look good for 100 entries by the end of the week for first place. It is expected there will be some new leaders today as the scores are low for the number that have bowled.

Take the Post-Office Out of Politics

In attempting to charge up the deficit in his Department against the magazines the Postmaster-General has done the country a genuine, even if an unintentional, service. He has drawn attention to the necessity for a thorough reorganization of the Postal Department. He has emphasized the importance of taking the Post-Office out of politics for all time.

The Fifty-ninth Congress authorized an investigation of postal affairs, and a joint commission, headed by Senator Penrose and Representative Overstreet, made a thorough investigation of the whole subject. As a result, the Overstreet bill, which contains many excellent recommendations, was presented. It is not from guesswork that we have concluded that the Department is in need of radical reorganization, but from the official reports of this Joint Congressional Postal Commission and of the disinterested accountants hired by it to investigate the business methods of the Department. We quote from these reports, remembering that the findings and criticisms are not ours, but those of a Congressional Commission and its authorized agents. First read these recommendations from the preliminary report of the Joint Postal Commission, in this week's number of

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Then read these extracts from the report of the public accountants employed by the Joint Commission:

"The service has grown from small beginnings over a long period of years, hampered by restrictive laws which may have been necessary in the past and may even now be considered necessary to some extent for a Government department, but which would render it practically impossible for any private business to survive."

"The general absence of any efficient methods of accounting has been brought to light by the inquiry carried out by the Joint Commission on second-class mail matter. This report was referred to Congress on January 30, 1907, and our investigation has confirmed the impression gathered from the study of it, that the whole of these methods are crude in the extreme and such as no private business concern or corporation could follow without the certainty of loss, if not of financial disaster."

There are half-a-dozen more of these extracts on the Editorial page of this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

In the Joint Postal Commission's report of 1907 we find:

"As an indication of the views at present entertained it is proper to say that the commission is profoundly impressed with the wisdom of the accountant's report in recommending the following:

"That the actual direction of the business of the Post-Office Department and postal service be committed to an officer with necessary assistants to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for long terms, so as to insure the continuity of efficient service, and that the Postmaster-General, as a member of the Cabinet, be chargeable only with general supervisory control and the determination of questions of policy."

We ask Congress to give us a Director of Posts—recommended by the Joint Congressional Committee of 1907, an officer who shall be non-political, and whose term of service shall not be subject to political changes, and who shall conduct the workings of the Post-Office Department with the efficiency, economy, and businesslike methods which distinguish high-class American business enterprise.

COL. CURRY IN CHARGE.

(Ohio State Journal)

General Warnock goes and Colonel Curry comes. That is the change at the pension agency in this city. There is a re-arrangement in this so far as General Warnock's going is concerned. He has made an efficient and accommodating officer, is a gentleman of great intelligence, and socially a most agreeable person. He is compelled by ill-health to resign, and to seek a climate more congenial than this. We all wish him well and will remember him kindly.

There is much satisfaction in the fact that Colonel Curry is to take his place. We don't think there is an old soldier in Ohio who will stick at this. Nature made Curry a gentleman and duty made him a fine soldier and in these two characteristics he will grace the office to which the president has called him. Besides, he is an efficient man, who knows how to do things and does them. Our godspeed to Warnock, our congratulations to Curry.

Whole house already sold for marriage, so be sure and get your tickets early for the evening entertainment. Seats reserved at Y. M. C. A., 25c.
